Weekly Bible Studies

Discipleship Groups

Discipleship groups are small groups consisting of 6-12 individuals who meet weekly via zoom or in person in someone's home to share a time for fellowship, bible study and prayer. No previous experience is necessary. Days and times are flexible so let us know what days and times work best for you, and if you would prefer to meet in person or virtually via zoom. In the past, groups have met in the evenings during the week or late afternoon on Sunday, but we will work to accommodate the times and meeting preferences requested by participants. We currently have two discipleship groups but would love to start additional groups based upon the schedules of new participants. Detailed below are the two current offerings. Both have availability for new members.

- One group meets Tuesday evenings at 7:30 via zoom. They will begin a study of Acts called Acts for Everyone by N.T. Wright.
- The second group also meets on Tuesday evenings from 7:00-8:30 in person in someone's home. This group will continue a study of the gospel of John called John for Everyone also by N.T. Wright. Although this study started in the spring, new members are welcome and each lesson stands on its own.

Sunday Listening for God at Home

Facilitators: Amy Stillwell

Location: Zoom Time: 7PM

Learn to listen for the voice of God in the words of Scripture, in prayer, in silence, and in community. We will gather to learn an ancient spiritual practice based on Lectio Divina (Holy Reading). Using the ears of our hearts, we will read selected Scripture, meditate, and reflect on how the Holy Spirit is speaking to us individually in the present moment. Don't miss this opportunity to Find God at Home.

Wednesday Morning Women's Bible Study

Facilitators: Amy Stillwell

Location: Hybrid (Garden Room/Zoom)

Time: Wednesday 10 AM

Womens's Bible Studies continue to flourish at St. Peter and St. Paul. We continue our study of Paul's letter to the Romans. Romans is probably the single most influential book of the Bible for the development of Christian doctrine and theology. Please join us as we dive into this very thought provoking and transformational study of Romans.
